Give every tab one job

- 1. Verify
Use the official card database, current rules, errata, ban list or tournament policy.
- 2. Build
Set the correct format and collection, then inspect legality, curve, ratios and card roles.
- 3. Test
Play sample hands, use a simulator, or compare several recent events before spending.

Before believing a deck list

- ☐ Date — Was it posted after the latest set, rotation, ban or errata?
- ☐ Format — Is it legal for the exact format and event you will play?
- ☐ Field — Was the result earned against a broad field or a tiny local pocket?
- ☐ Copies — Does the pattern repeat across several events and pilots?
- ☐ Pilot — Can you explain the deck's decisions well enough to reproduce the result?

Spend only after the evidence agrees

- ☐ Start complete — Buy a coherent starter product before buying unrelated boosters or singles.
- ☐ Test the change — Play the stock list, identify the bottleneck, then change the smallest number of cards.
- ☐ Use the exact link — Confirm the pictured edition, language, seller and contents at checkout.
