

Where It's Sold, What's In It, and Which Expansions Owners Keep

The publisher does not sell direct and publishes no prices. Here is the whole shelf on one page.

Before you buy

- ☐ The publisher does not sell it — Covenant handles US/CA; Naylor Games handles UK/EU
- ☐ Their own expansions page links to a closed pledge manager — ignore it — that is why every shop looks empty
- ☐ Own a first printing? Your upgrade is $5 — the Card Errata and Divider Pack, not a new box
- ☐ Read the rulebook free first — Earthborne publishes the complete Core Set rulebook as a PDF
- ☐ Trailblazer is a separate game — not an expansion, and not a reason to wait

Your first six days

The community's standard advice: play to Day 6 before buying anything else.

1. Days 1–2 — learn the valley's rhythm

where paths go, how a day ends
2. Days 3–5 — build a deck you actually like you can rebuild between days

3. Day 6 — the click moment

by now you know whether wandering, noticing and tending is your evening
4. Then decide

if yes, Stewards of the Valley is your next $40

Made without plastic — and the trade-off

SPEC	DETAIL
Paper	100% FSC certified
Coatings	None — no plastic film, no shrink wrap
Inks	Vegetable based
End of life	All but the rulebook staples is recyclable or compostable
Miniatures	Lead-free reclaimed pewter
Trade-off	Uncoated cards wear faster than coated ones — sleeving is a preference, not a rescue

Sources. Earthborne Games' own site and free rulebook PDF, the two partner stores the publisher names (Covenant for US/CA, Naylor Games for UK/EU), retailer product feeds, and BoardGameGeek owner counts. Written in our own words; nothing here reproduces rulebook text.

Accuracy. Every figure on this sheet was read from the sources above on 2 August 2026. Prices and availability change; rules do not. Where this sheet and the rulebook disagree, the rulebook is right.
